Sheboygan South Catholic Parishes Mission Statement

The Sheboygan South Catholic faith communities of Immaculate Conception, St. Peter Claver, and SS. Cyril & Methodius exist to boldly proclaim the Gospel of Jesus Christ and grow together as intentional disciples through word, sacraments, and service to transform our world in Christ's image.

PASTORAL MESSAGE FROM FR. PAUL FLISS

The solemnity, the Epiphany of our Lord is more ancient than the celebration of Christmas. It originally included the mystery of Christ's birth, the Manifestation of God to the Nations, and the Baptism of the Lord. Over time, these celebrations gained their own dignity, with Christmas becoming the most central to our faith as Catholics.

Today the Epiphany shows us that Jesus Christ is revealed as the God/Man for all people throughout the world. He is the light that gives meaning to life for everyone. Truly in practice we are a universal Church, encompassing all cultures and peoples. There is a Catholic presence within every country and culture in the world. Some cultures and countries have a small Catholic population, while some other countries and cultures are mostly all Catholic. When we all focus and work together we can be the strongest force for God and goodness in the world. I don't know if we ever think about our communion and collaboration in this way.

I consider it fortunate that I have always been interested in other cultures and languages. From my early life experience of being a lay missionary in Mexico, to my gradual and now expansive involvement with the Hmong Catholic community, I recognize God is working with and through me to help others understand the revelation of Christ to the nations. My life has been enriched immeasurably by this special ministry. Within the Catholic Church in the United States, by the year 2025, the majority of Catholics between the ages of 1 and 35 will speak English as a second language. For some this can be scary, but from my perspective, this multi-cultural reality will strengthen the Church through dialogue, getting to know one another, and working together. As we make our pilgrimage in the new year, I pray that through dialogue and getting to know one another, the sins of prejudice and discrimination may cease.

Happy Epiphany everyone!

Fr. Paul

STAFF SPOTLIGHT

Lauren Monaghan

Recently, I was listening to an interview with the late South African Anglican bishop Desmond Tutu. He talked of a particular sermon during the years of apartheid in which he reminded his subjugated Black congregants that each of them were God-carriers, endowed with intrinsic dignity and worth: sacred beings made in God's own image and likeness.

One of the beauties of our Liturgical calendar is its cyclical nature. Year after year we come to celebrate and remember the most sacred events of the life of Christ and His Church. We are reminded of the most profound truths of our human reality. That the Word did indeed become flesh to dwell amongst us (John 1:14), to show us how to live and love. To reveal to us that we are God's beloved. To hold up the mirror to our faces and say, "This is who you are and who you are is infinitely precious and good and sacred and loved. Who you are is a person made in my own image and likeness."

This Christmas and always, I hope you know that YOU are a God-carrier. That you, in your own unique way, reveal the love, goodness, and beauty of our God.

COMMITTEES AND COMMISSIONS

PASTORAL COUNCIL

Happy New Year's Sheboygan South Catholic Parish Families! Over 100 parishioners from Immaculate Conception, St Peter Claver and Saint Cyril & Methodius along with Christ Child Academy families donned festive hats and noise makers to ring in the coming New Year at Staskunas Activity Center in Christ Child Academy on December 31st.

Our New Year's Eve Social was packed with lots of socializing and fun including bingo, games, crafts and even an escape room. The evening culminated with a New Year's count down by Fr. Paul after the $10,000 Grand Raffle Drawing.

It was truly a memorable, family friendly evening that was made possible by amazing volunteers from all three parishes and Christ Child Academy. This is just one of the many opportunities that my family and along with your family is blessed to have available to us throughout the year.

Our tri-parish committees and commissions are busy planning more exciting initiatives and volunteer opportunities you will learn about in the coming months. As a member of Pastoral Council, I would encourage you to explore and experience the diverse and extensive offering of activities and volunteer opportunities that our tri-parish community offers. Remember parishioner participation is truly the life blood of our community.

Nathan Stauber – Pastoral Council

SOCIAL OUTREACH

St Vincent de Paul Heating Assistance

The St. Vincent de Paul conferences for the three parishes, annually, during these old winter months, help out those who struggle to pay high utility bills, especially for heating costs.

Our SVdP conferences do literally help our neighbors as the assistance goes to people in need right here in each parish's neighborhood.

Your generosity and support of this outreach ministry is greatly appreciated by those in need and by the three SVdP conferences.

Thank you for your support

PRAYER NETWORK

The second place qualifiers in each grade level were Elliott Patton (gr.1), Ava Yurk (gr. 2), Lilah Patton (gr. 3), and Nina Dorato (gr. 4) The 3rd place recipients in each grade level were Aubrey Thill (gr. 1), Cael Heronymus (gr. 3), and Garrett Urbina (gr. 4).
